

BORIE-MANOUX

Château Haut-Bages Monpelou

PAUILLAC

2018

Château Haut-Bages Monpelou is considered as the "young brother" of Château Batailley. It was formerly one of the three Château Duhart Milon's vineyards. Separated and renovated by Marcel Borie in 1948, it has been managed as an independent property since that time. Emile Castéja, Marcel Borie's son-in-law, succeeded him and began to manage the winery. Today, the vineyard is managed by Château Batailley's technical team. The wine produced is elegant and structured thanks to the particular attention and care for grape varieties.
