Château Canteloup

BORDEAUX SUPERIEUR ROUGE

2020

Château Canteloup is situated in the community of La Sauve, half an hour South of Bordeaux. The Château's vineyard lies close to the famous Benedictine Abbey La Sauve Majeure from the 11th century, a Unesco World Cultural Heritage. The Latorse family has been proprietor of the Château for over 50 years. They are committed to a modern and environmentally sustainable management of the Château.

VINEYARD

SOIL :
Clay, gravel

GRAPE VARIETY :
Merlot
Cabernet Sauvignon
Cabernet Franc
Malbec

WINE MAKING PROCESS

Traditional vinification with a long maceration. Aging in stainless steel tanks during 6 to 10 months.

TASTING

Light red color, purple reflections. Toasted woody nose underlined by a slight floral pattern. Aromas of plums, chocolate and blackberries with black spices. On the palate, juicy red berries of a beautiful purity. Moderate tannins and silky aging finished with a pleasant note of freshness. A silky texture and elegant style for a wine to drink now or to hold.

BLEND 2020 :
60% Merlot
35% Malbec
5% Cabernet Franc

MATCHING WITH FOOD

Accompany perfectly beef, game, cold meat or cheese.
