Château Pontac Lynch

CRU BOURGEOIS

MARGAUX

2019

Château Pontac-Lynch is situated close to the villages of Margaux and Issan. The Château was built as a hunting lodge by Count Lynch in 1720. In the 19th century, the Counts of Pontac, one of the oldest Médoc families and first owners of Château Haut-Brion acquired the Château and gave it the name it carries today, Pontac Lynch. In 1952, the Bondon family acquired Château Pontac Lynch and led the wine through continuous improvement to today's superb quality.
